6. GUIDELINES

Regulation 9 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, provides that the listed entity shall have a Policy for preservation of documents, approved by its Board of Directors, classifying them in at least two categories as follows –

- a. documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature ;
- b. documents with preservation period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions.

Accordingly, the company has classified the preservation of documents to be done in the Following manner:

- a. documents that needs to be preserved and retained permanently;

- b. documents that needs to be preserved and retained for a period of 8 years as specified under the Companies Act , 2013 or SEBI (LODR) Regulations;
- c. documents that need to be preserved and retained for such period as prescribed under any statute, rule, law or regulation as applicable to the Company;
- d. Where there is no such requirement as per applicable laws, then for such period as the document pertains to a matter which is “Current”.

An indicative list of the Documents and the time-frame of their preservation is provided in Annexure- I

7. MODES OF PRESERVATION

The Documents may be preserved in

- a. Physical form; and/or
- b. Electronic Form.

The official of the Company required to preserve the document shall be Authorised Person who is generally expected to observe the compliance of statutory requirements as per applicable laws, for the time being in force.

The preservation of documents should be such as to ensure that there is no tampering, alteration, destruction or anything which endangers the content, authenticity, utility or accessibility of the documents.

The preserved documents must be accessible at all reasonable times. Access may be controlled by the concerned Authorised Person with preservation, so as to ensure integrity of the Documents and prohibits unauthorized access.

- Destruction of documents

The documents of the Company which are no longer required as per the time schedule prescribed in the Annexure A may be destroyed. The concerned officer may direct employees in charge, from time to time, to destroy the documents which are no longer required as per the documents preservation schedule given under Annexure A. The details of the documents destroyed by the Company shall be recorded in the Register for Disposal of Records to be kept by Employees who are disposing of the documents in the format prescribed at Annexure B. The entries in the register shall be authenticated by the Authorised Person.
